Learning,

We Are Always Learning

Continually Growing, Creating The Unique Soul That Each Of Us Calls . . .

MYSELF

We Have Learned From What Has Been Pleasurable

And From What Has Been Hard To Accept

We Must Clutch What We Have Learned . . .

And Grasp For Life,

To Attempt Anything, Anywhere

Stop And Consider

What Has Been,

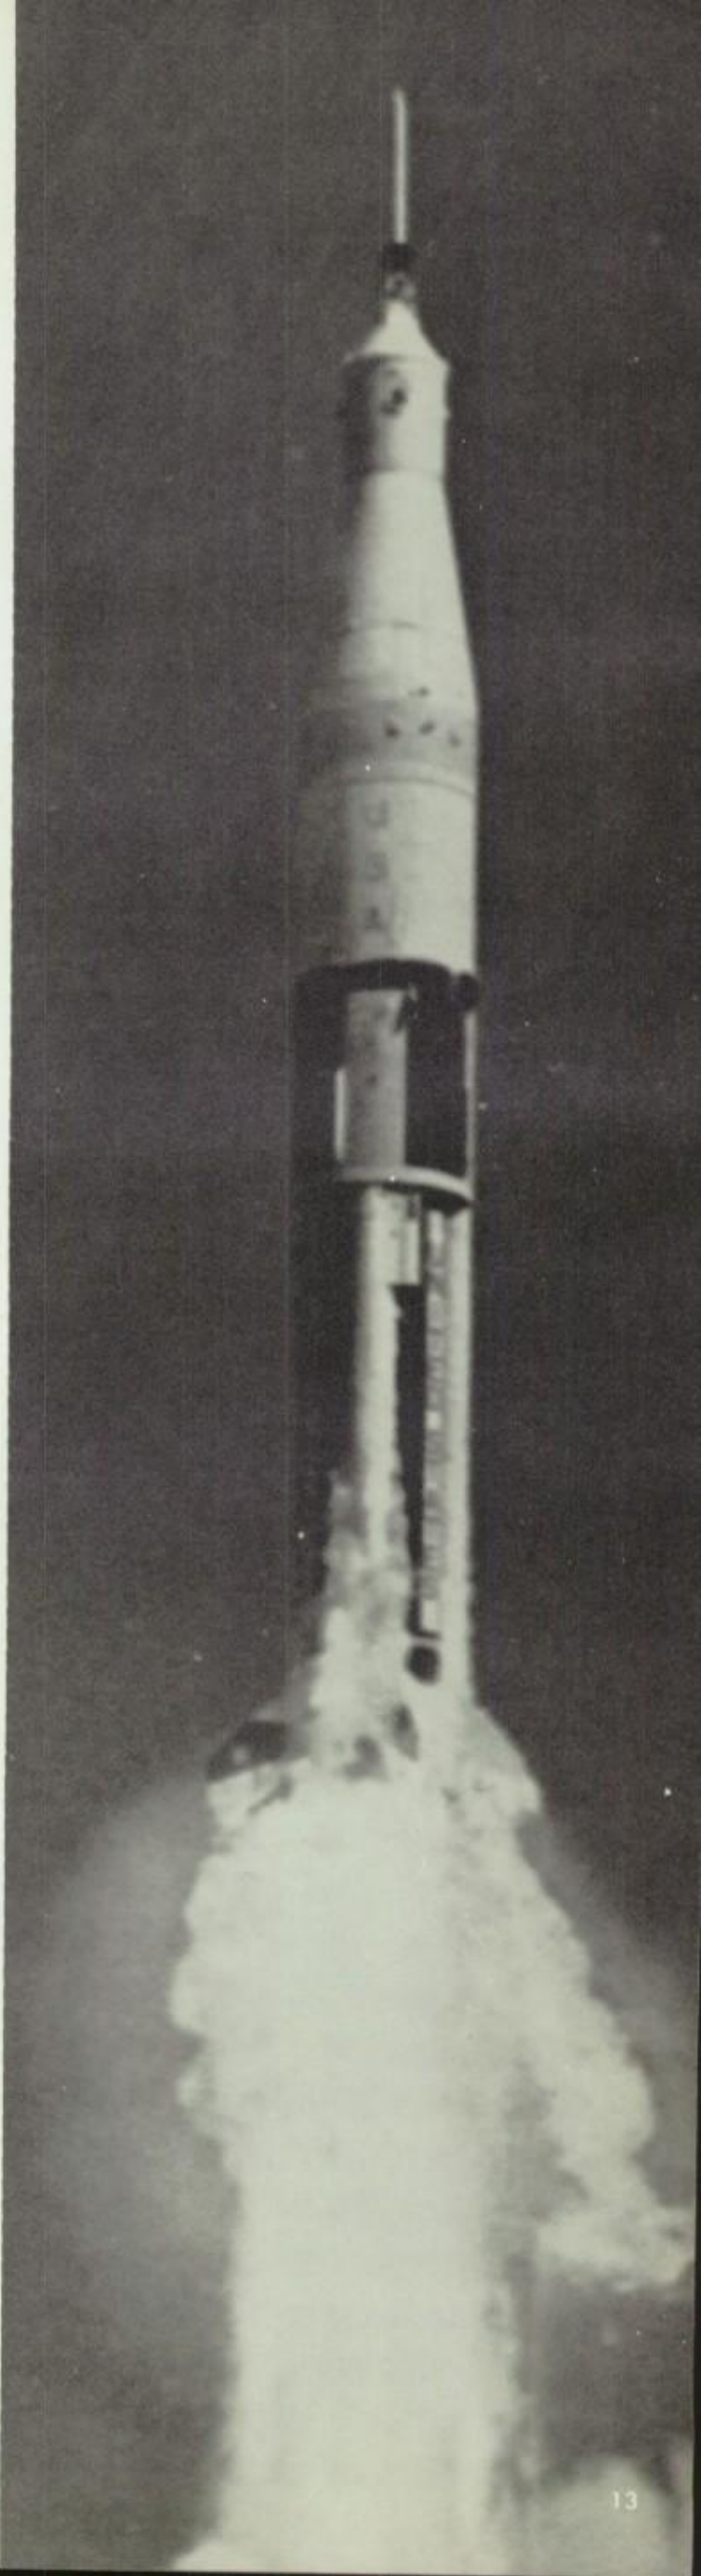
What Is

And What Will Be

Appraise Ourselves

And Our Futures

And Prepare . . .



For There Awaits
A Place
For Each Of Us In This World, A World
Warm and Wonderful, Cruel And Full Of Beauty, Harsh And Gratifying And Limitless.

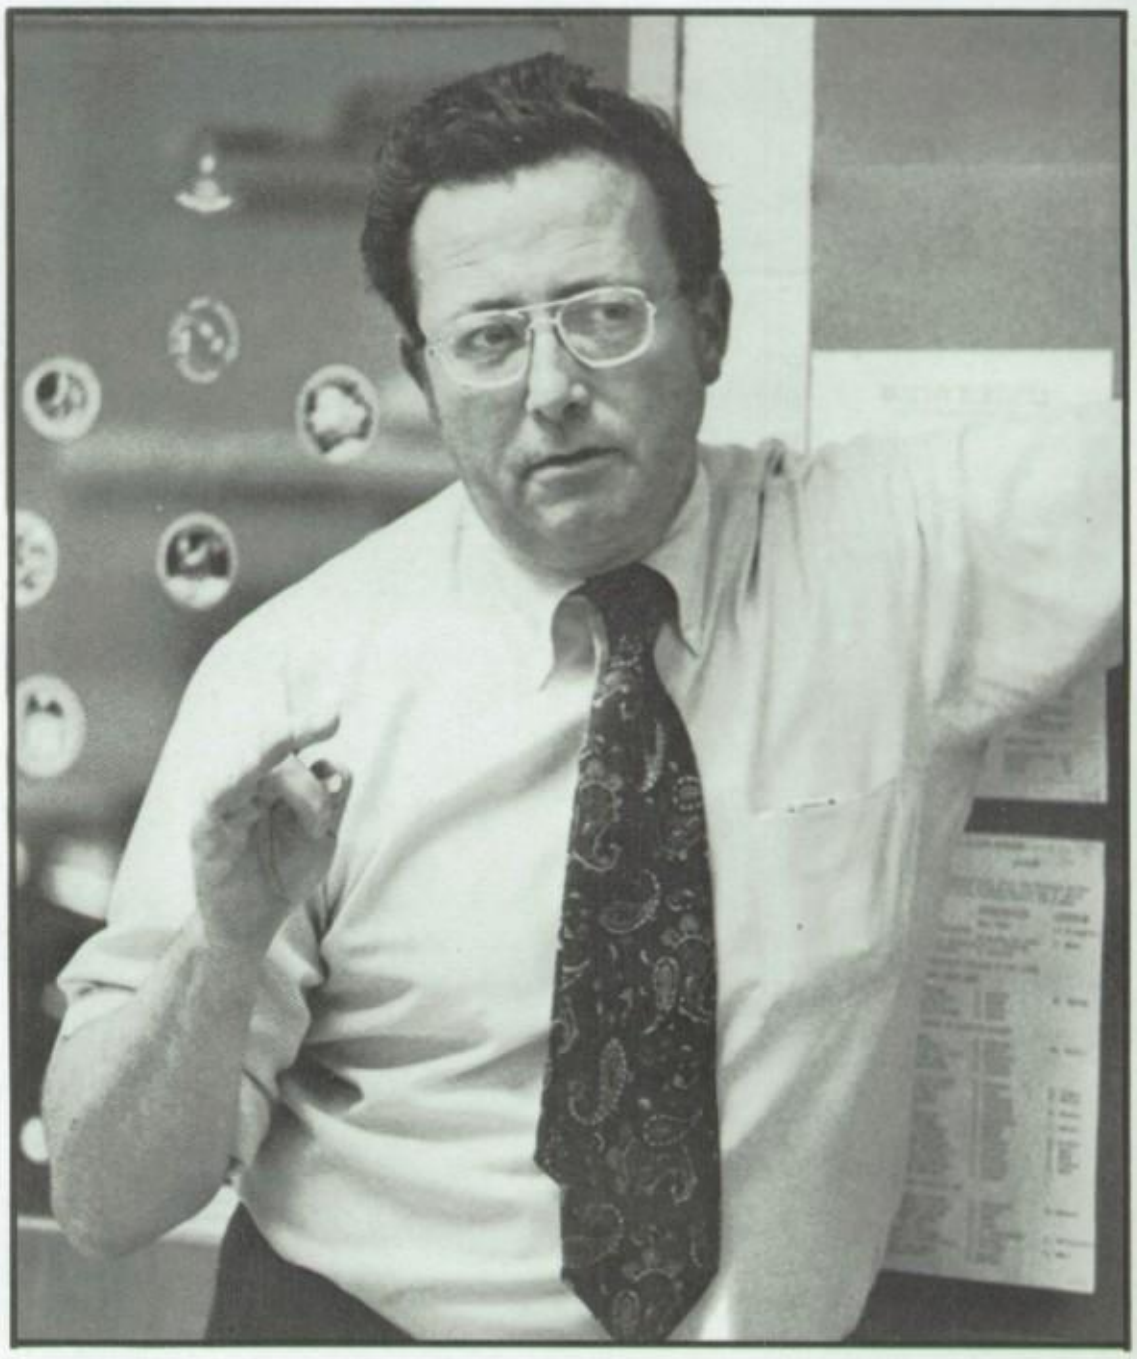
Every moment that we have spent in your presence, we were learning something, and that knowledge has become a permanent part of us. Your enthusiasm, concern and sincere dedication have touched us deeply. With endless reserves of spirit and vitality, you have opened our minds to the world around us, and given us confidence. Your example has encouraged our thirst for learning; your vigor has heightened our anticipation.

A part of us shall always be you. Thus, we dedicate this book to you, Mr. Clancy, with our gratitude and respect . . . and thanks.



Mr. Dennis Clancy, Thank You.

'Twas the night before deadline
And silent in the halls.
But not in the art room Where duty didst call.
For here sat the yearbookers Buried in work, Without food, without pause, Drained of spirit and perk.
Adam, the editor,
Encouraged his staffers,
The doodlers, the whiners,
The screamers, the laughers.
Jeanne, in the corner,
In charge of soliciting
Was screaming for help
But no one was listening.
Gerry counted money
As Mark sold books, Lucky for the yearbook
That they aren't crooks!
Mike paced around Covering miles of turf, Saying over and over
"I'm hungry. Where's Murph?" Pictures of teachers Stacked to the ceilings, Were greeted by Marianne's And Lori's tender feelings.
It was clear that they all Were weary and unsteady,
But the worst of the group Were Steven and Eddie.
Michelle and Debbie,
Seeing the anguish and sorrow, Packed up their bags —
Said "See ya' tomorrow."
The "Doc Clock" ticked on And dawn break was soon —
And the spirit of hard work Was Janet and June.
The Senior Editors, Numbering five,
After hours of "discussion,"
Were lucky to be alive.
Then things took a turn
In a happy direction, Margaret and Laura Finished their section.
Following suit were Phyllis and Jackie
As the sky turned bright blue
From its nocturnal blackie.
So all were exhausted, Lori and Amy too,
Though they were still waiting For something to do.
Then Ellen appeared With Center Section complete, Bringing this book and This staff to its feet.
Lo, they finished the pages
So careful and fine,
And from Doc came the words . . .
"Hey, kids, this stuff is great For a yearbook . . . but not mine!!"

CLARKSTOWN SOUTH

SENIOR CLASS

President: Jackie Fleming
Vice President: Dave Huerta
Secretary: Janine Turner
Treasurer: June Monteforte Advisor: Ms. Loreto

We have seen three different presidents lead our class in various activities. Harry Bursee replaced Suzanne Wagner as President in our junior year and Jackie Fleming ran the class in our senior year. As seniors, our class had enough money to assist with the cost of the Senior Prom, the Senior Play, caps and gowns, yearbook, the senior lunch, and a Great Adventure outing.

We were also able to leave the school a gift that everyone can appreciate.

Activities that the class of '79 sponsored were Halloween Day, the Bowlathon, and Hat and Sock Day.

JUNIOR CLASS

President: Tonette Cosimano
Vice President: Eileen Gentillo
Secretary: Valerie Materese
Treasurer: Mary O'Brien Advisor: Mr. Nash

The class of 1980 initiated many new ideas for raising money such as selling Christmas ornaments. The spirit of this class was evident at the smashing Junior Ball. Fund raising for the McShane Memorial Scholarship for Science was the major accomplishment. The junior class is preparing for a successful senior year.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

GENERAL ORGANIZATION

President: Tony Mingone
Vice President: Mike Good Treasurer: Tara Moore
Secretary: Joel Grossbarth
Advisor: Mr. Vertullo

The G.O. sponsored Gong Show was one of the most outstanding events of the year. A unique project was the showing of 3 = D movies, a Clarkstown first. The funds acquired by the G.O. are a great help to the other clubs and organizations of the school.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

President: Mike Bracco
Vice President: Lisa Palmiotto
Treasurer: Bessie Martin
Secretary: Beth Meyerson Advisors: Ms. Large
Ms. Colligan

Fund Raisers have been very successful for the Class of '81, the most notable of which was their annual dance featuring "Sundog". The class is looking forward to next year's Junior Ball and an action packed senior year.

FRESHMAN CLASS

President: Joe Biello
Vice President: Liz McCabe
Secretary: Debbie Rimland
Treasurer: Judy Ferber
G.O. Delegate: Mark Phillippy Advisors: Mrs. Predtechenskis
Mrs. Andreassi

The most successful of the freshman class fund raising events were the flower, candy and Valentine's Day cards sales. The car wash and marathon baseball game were imaginative ways to raise money for their future years.

The 1978 Varsity Baseball team finished with a convincing 15-5 overall record and gained a part of the R.C.P.S.A.L. tri-championship. The dedication and instruction of Coach Depatto earned him such honors as the R.C.P.S.A.L. Coach of the Year and the Daily News All-Star Coach. The combination of Coach Depatto's knowledge with the individual talents and team potential resulted in a successful season.

The pre-season opinions rated the team as an underdog contender. Each game was taken one at a time and each victory encouraged the team to strive for its final goal — a championship. The leadership of co-captains Jeff Ramundo and Jim Bladel along with the seniors' experience and the underclassmen's enthusiasm made the championship dream a reality.

"I Can No Other Answer Make but Thanks, and Thanks, and Ever Thanks."

— William Shakespeare

Stephanie Mack, guidance counselor, teacher and friend to so many people in Clarkstown over the years, retires this June after eight years at Clarkstown South. Her obvious love for her work and her true desire to be of service have helped many a student in need of specific advice or just a person to talk to. She has always put her students first. Her warm smile, her patience, her encouragement will be remembered always.

Thank you, Mrs. Mack, and best wishes for health and happiness in the future.

KODAK SAFETY FILM 5063

IN THIS END A BEGINNING . . .

IN THIS LEAVING BEHIND A REACHING FORWARD A BREATHLESS EXPECTATION . . .

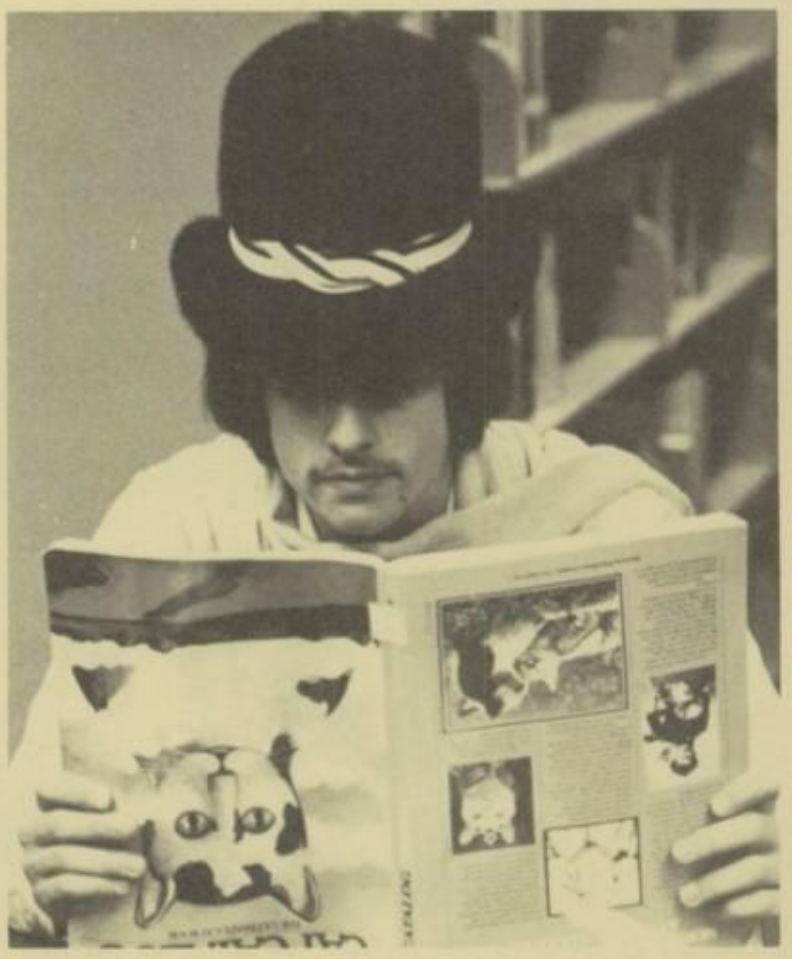
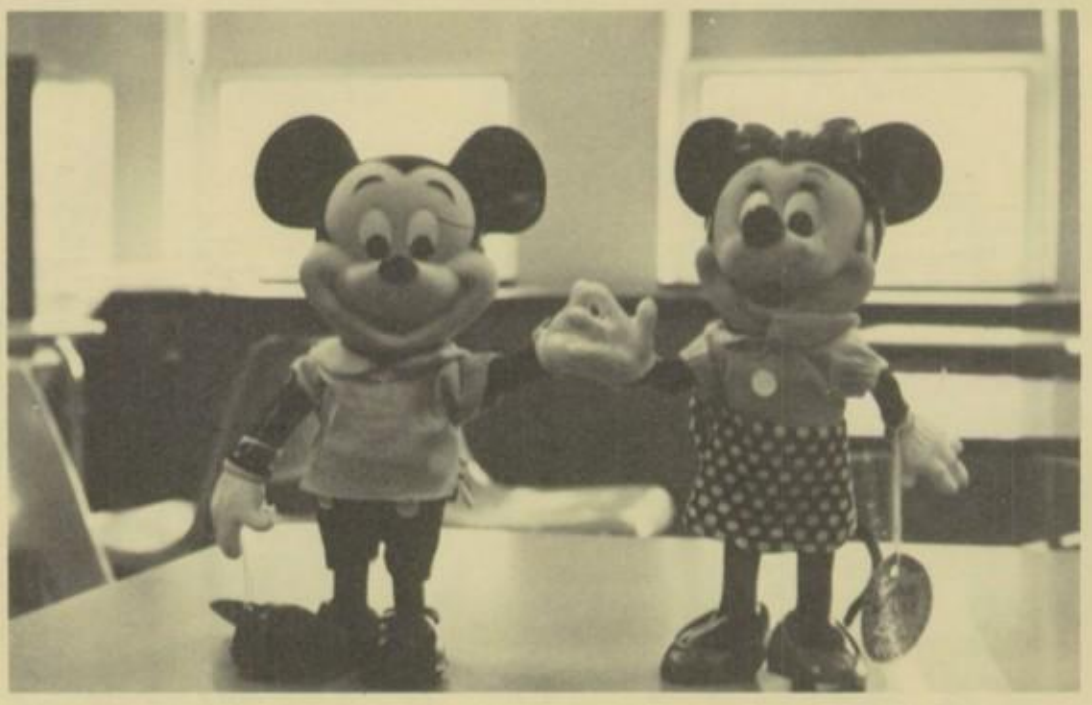
A RENEWAL OF CHILDHOOD AFTER AN IMAGINED MATURITY . . .



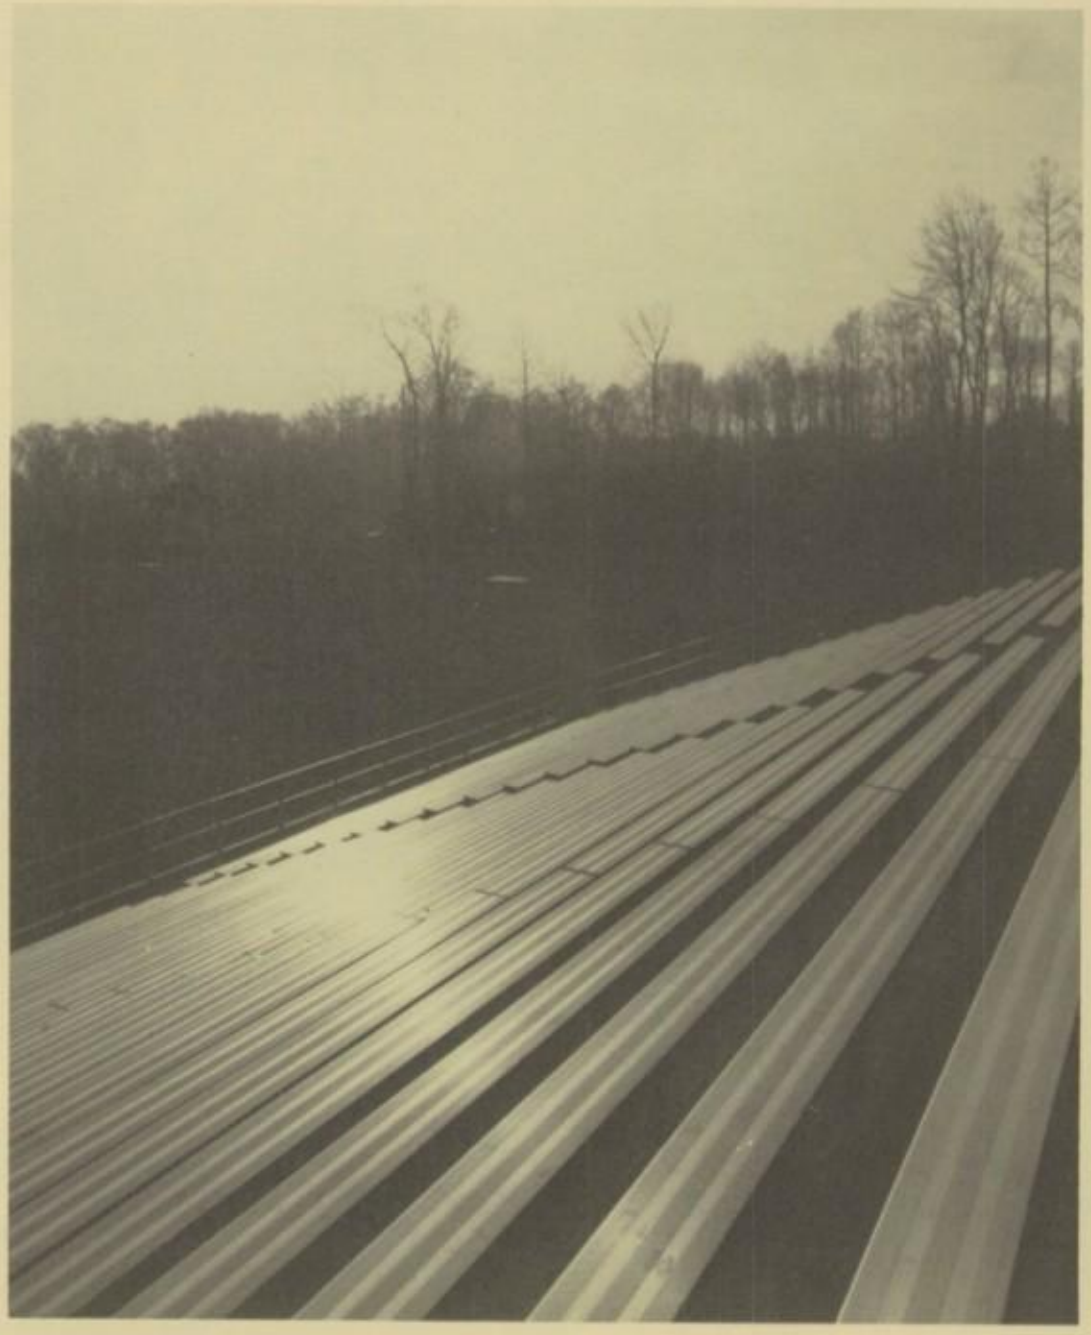


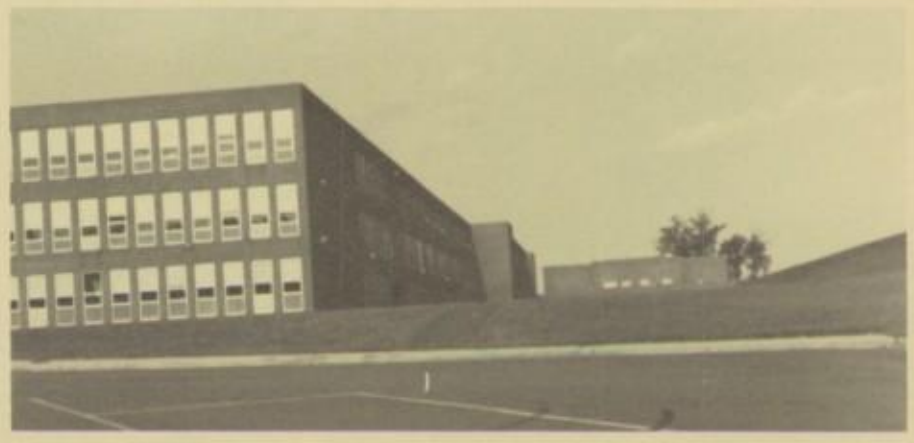
AWAKEN!

YE, WHO STAND IN THIS

TWILIGHT-DAWN OF LIFE . . .

LOOK ABOUT!
WITH YOUR NEW EYES . . .





SEE!

THIS WORLD AFRESH

THE SAME YET DIFFERENT

LIKE YOURSELVES . . .

ENJOY!

THESE FIRST AND LAST

FEW DAYS OF CHILDHOOD . . .

THE WORLD WILL NEVER SEEM SO NEW TO YOU . . .

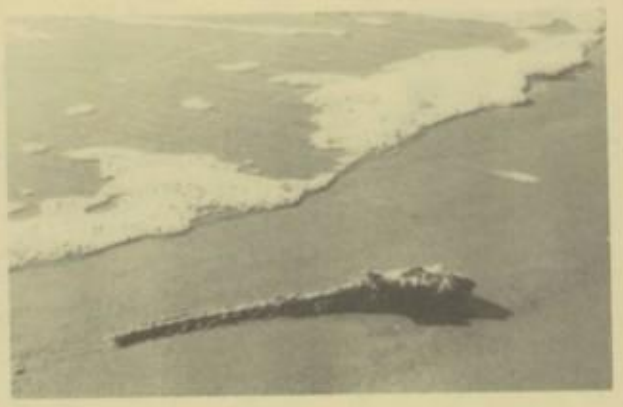
AS IT DOES RIGHT NOW!



SENIORS

A huge able hand gathered the colors of all the leaves of all the trees and spread them in succession all over the sky of the east .
And in that mid hour between dawn and day a cold bright perfect half moon occupies with accustomed impassiveness the thin wedge of blue between dark occident and fiery orient
As the day advances the colors have not really left the trees only by infinitesimal increments do they turn milder grayer
The leaves then fall and a great part of them goes deep in the ground to feed anew the roots the life that will come next spring and re-clothe the old branches in gray with colders

And so rebirth is really the new using the old then helping the old a cooperation a merging of resources a commonality of weal to the service of rich full life
As your own day advances and you prepare to leave this place behind and its leaves pale in your eyes don't forget how once they were bright and so fruitful That your renaissance is not from tabula rasa and that even after the leaves have fallen their substance will in ways obvious or elusive nurture your new foliage color your views deepen your understandings mold your attitudes and be for that continuing life a stele as strong and as beautiful as you want it to be.

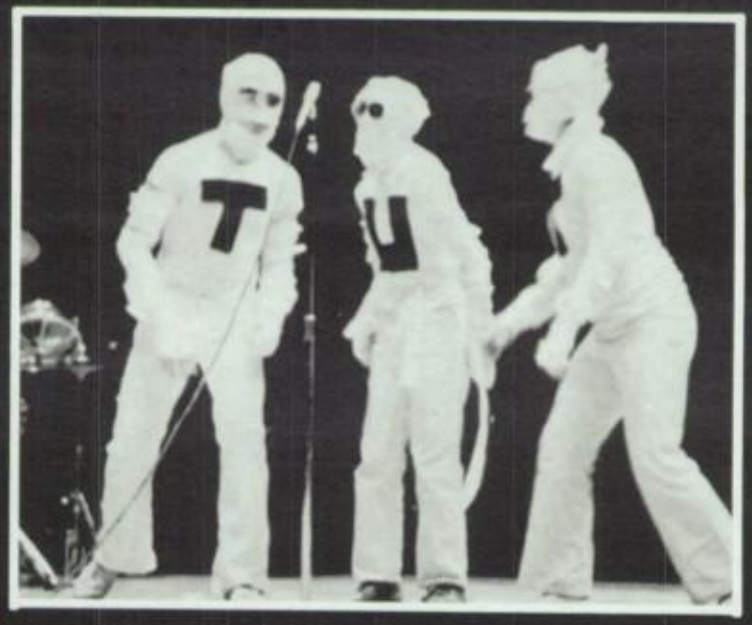
Gong Show '79



More than a thousand enthusiastic students packed the auditorium to enjoy Clarkstown South's Second Annual Gong Show. The most successful fund raiser for the G.O. featured a talented array of musical acts and other entertaining performances. You were doing your thing, Like we all do our own.
Yours was great,
Until you unexpectedly met your fate.
Your life was your car,
And your Beatles songs,
But for some unknown reason,
It wasn't meant to last very long.

You lived each day,
To the fullest extent.
Both the good and the bad,
Of the many encounters your life had.
You touched our hearts.
You had your own special style,
That left a trademark.

You had so much talent, so much to give,
I can't help but wonder why you weren't meant to live.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF PAUL DEMAIO

In a sense of the word there is really no death. But God feels it's time to have this person join him in His new world. We'll see his expression and reflection in others, knowing he is around watching over us.

We will never forget our friend - his creativeness, his beautiful smile, the way he brightened up everyone's day.

Someday, all of us will be joining him in his new life, and he will be there to guide us.

We will remember Paul in our prayers and in our dreams, as the happy-go-lucky person that he was. His friendship will never be forgotten - we'll cherish it always.

There was an expression he used: "See the light. We'll all see the light someday."

We will never forget you, Paul.

Love always,
Grace Cossu and friends who knew him.

Jeanne,
Go confidently in the direction of your dreams.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Janice

Tina,

Ever since I met you, my life has been more complete. You have filled that empty space in my life, with all your caring, generosity, and love. Now as we begin to walk the new paths of our lives, the love we share will make it easier for me to accept new challenges, to face new experiences, and to enjoy a different way of life; for I know you'll always be there.

All My Love Now and Forever, Paul

To Adam —

Though we are very close to each other, we each have our own lives and own goals. We are together, always, in our hearts, but not necessarily together, always, in all our activities — a relationship based on truth, freedom and love.

— From Meg

THE SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

Tennyson saw Ulysses as a romantic individual possessed of human greatness. We quote a line or two that may guide us long after the words have vanished.

Some work of noble note, may yet be done,
Not unbecoming men that strove with gods.
The long day wanes; the slow moonclimbs; the deep Moans round with many voices. Come, my friends,
'Tis not too late to seek a newer world.

We are not now that strength which in old days Moved earth and heaven, that which we are, we are, — One equal temper of heroic hearts, Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.
